About Us

We support people in need by helping them make sustainable, positive change in their lives.

At The Cyrenians we work to make a real difference – locally, regionally and nationally through effective, pioneering and innovative services.

Our Vision is to be an outstanding organisation which integrates socially excluded people back into society and improves their lives.

Our mission - Changing Lives, Building Futures

The values which underpin our mission are:

- being good at what we do
- being passionate about how we do it
- embracing change
- working with our service users as individuals
- valuing our staff
